All the support you need

When you choose Interpon powder coatings you receive more than just outstanding products. You connect with a global brand supported by the world's largest paints and coatings company.

Our aim is to make your decision to use our products as easy as possible. How can we do this? Firstly, offer superior products in a range of brilliant colors and finishes, and secondly, ensure the information you want is up-to-date and available when you need it.

Of course if you cannot find what you need here, contact us today and talk to one of our sales or technical staff.
